On-Briefe.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., April 29.—At the United States Circuit Court at New-berne the indictment of the Craven county canvassing board for throwing ent James City precinct in canvassing the returns for the congressional elec-tion last autumn was returned by the grandejury not a true bill. A bill was presented by Solicitor Busbee against the canvassing board for failure to count the returns from Camp Palmer pre-cinct and a precinct in Newberne. Upon this the grand jury found a true bill. A motion for continuance was made and agreed to, as the funds of the court are very limited. The case goes ever until next term.

LUTHERAN. The North Carolina Lutheran Synod convened to-day at St. Michael schurch, Mecklenburg county, in annual session. Trouble is expected in Gaston couny over threats by some negroes to reak into the jail at Dallas and release a negro who is confined there for an offence against a young white woman Sheriff Abernathy has received a letter stating that the jail would be stormed and the negro released. The letter is signed by Tom Hunter, a negro, who says three hundred men are behind him. The military company at Dallas, under command of Captain Holland, will repress promptly any disorder.

Two new fire-insurance companies entered the State to-day. BAILBOADS.

It is said that the South Atlantic and Northwestern railway scheme, which was recently reported as practically dead, is to be revived. Work was suspended by the surveying corps because of the failure to receive pay. It is stated that the chief engineer of the proposed road will be at Smithville toprow and pay off all indebtedness and put matters straight, so the work of survey may be resumed.

Yesterday work was begun on the new railway from Monroe to Atlanta. This is an important line. General R. F. Hoke is its president, and it is to be part of a new road from Richmond and points north to Atlanta and points Noah Evans, the negro charged with burning the oil-mills here, was sent to jail to day by Mayor Dodd in default of $500 bond, and will be tried at the July term of the Superior Court. The prosecution claim that the evidence will convict him.

Mr. H. A. James, the young man of Clinton who was so dreadfully wounded at the Clinton railway celebration by being thrust through the body with a sword, continues to improve. PERSONALS.

Bishop Watson, of the diocese of East Carolina, will make a visitation to parishes in the diocese of Easton, Md., beginning on the 25th of next month.

Governor Scales has made excellent selections from the trustees of the University to compose the Board of Visit The selections are Messrs N. H. D. Wilson, Julian S. Carr, Charles M. Cooke, W. H. S. Burgwyn, William H. Chadbourn, Charles R. Thomas, and J. S. Stewart. Bishop Galloway, in one of his able sermons at Durham last Sunday, stated that the Methodists are now building five churches every working day in the year.

The widely-known Eaptist evangelist,

Rev. F. M. Jordan, who was stricken with paralysis at his home, in Buncombe county, is reported as being in a somewhat improved condition. He is a man of powerful constitution and physique, and has for years been an arnest and unremitting worker for his church in all parts of the State.

The details of the celebration at the unveiling of the Bentonville battle monument May 10th are nearly all arranged. Colonel J. B. Starr, of Fayetteville, who was in command of a battery at the battle, will be present, as will also General Robert F. Hoke. Ex-Congressman A. M. Waddell's ad-dress will be a fine production. The assemblage of people will be remarka-bly large. The Odd-Fellows of Fay-etteville will attend in a body.

Arrival of Mormons and Other Im migrants-The Liquor-Men, &c. orrespondence of the Richmond Disputch.)

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]

Norfolk, April 29, 1887.

A company of one hundred and fifty Mormon recruits, chiefly females, arrived here to-day from New York on the steamship Roanoke, in charge of agents of the Mormon Church, who are taking them to Salt Lake City. They came from Europe, and are of the immigrant class. The religious tenets of these peculiar people excited considerable curiosity, and throngs of persons visited the wharves to see what "Latter-Day Saints" looked like.

Immigrants are now being landed here by the Old Dominion Steamship Line at the rate of 200 a week. They are chiefly forwarded West over the

The city treasurer states that not more than $1,000 have been tendered by the liquor-dealers for the May heenses. Judge Brooke, of the Corporation Court, by his ruling, has created considerable excitement among the proprietors of the liquor establishments. The Judge administered an oath to each applicant that he would hereafter obey and conform strictly to the Sunday law and the law relating to minors in regard to the sale of liquor, and if detected in violation to pay $500 fine and license revoked. The hotels are also debarred from serving wine at meals on the Sabbath. There are fifty-one applicants so far. Some of the best bars have been refused. All coupons ten-dered were refused by the treasurer.

SUDDEN DEATH

Of a Citizen of Alexandria-Other

Notes. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] ALEXANDEIA, Va., April 29.—John Weist, a well-known German living in the western part of the city, died rather unexpectedly at midnight from, it is supposed, paralysis. He was seen in his yard chopping wood about noon, and it is supposed that while attempt-ing to fell a heavy piece the axe came in contact with the clothes-line stretching above, and rebounding, the helve struck him a heavy blow upon the right knee, causing him to fall helpless and stunned as when found. Deceased came here some forty-odd years ago and until recently was in the milk busi ness. He was about sixty-five, a clever man, and a good citizen.

William Brown, the saddler, was taken suddenly sick at his store to-day and was taken home. His life is despaired of.

H. E. DU VAL, Cherk. whereafter), the TRULY-NALUABLE REAL ESTATE above mentioned.
The lot has a front on the south line of Cary street of 17e feet and runs back 100 feet to the said docks of the James River and Kanawha Company.
The connection track of the Bichmond and Danville relirond is immediately on its south and between it and the said docks, thus affording unumnia facilities for handling large merchandise, &c., either by rail or water, at a very small outlay, and saving all drayage, &c.
The entire lot is covered with a substantial two-story brick warehouse, well arranged.
This property will be offered in two sections—first, the Lot, with improvements, beginning 44 feet from the intersection of Cary and Seventeenth streets, running entwardly 132 feet; and afterwards, the Lot, with the improvements, fronting 44 feet at the corner of seventeenth and Cary streets.
This property whould command the attention of all seeking intersections, transportation facilities, size, &c., all being in its favor.
Thems: Cash as to sufficiency to pay cost and expenses of sale, all taxes past due, and to pay off and discharge a note for the sum of $25.00, with interest thereon from the 8th day of April, 1887; residue at six, twelve, and eighteen months—the deferred payments to be evidenced by negotiable notes, with 6 per cent, interest added and secured by a trust-deed on the property.
